Old Cabins & New Cooks: If you have not yet turned in a recipe, there is still time to contribute your favorite family recipe for the "OLD CABINS & NEW COOKS" book. It is not required to have "historical" family connections to submit a favorite recipe so this presents a great opportunity to have your family included in this record of Silver Gate, Cooke City & Colter Pass. The total proceeds from this project will go to the "historical area" of the New Community Building. Please join the fun and be a part of this great effort. If you have any questions or want to submit a recipe, please email jwkohl@yahoo.com On the subject line, be sure to label your email with Old Cabins & New Cooks

Historical Notes & Quotes: (Thanks Dee)

A Tommy Garrison Story

Tommy had a little cabin nearby the old water spring & retaining box for the Cooke City water supply. It was on the Goose Creek road below the hillside of Balsum Root Flowers (Daisy Pass). He had a small road just big enough for his BMW to travel on. A log across the road before his cabin was just low enough for his car to get under...of course no other cars could make the clearance!
